

2017 Dreamcatcher Gymnastics Invitational

February 25 – 26, 2017

Pueblo of Pojoaque - Santa Fe, New Mexico

Experience authentic Native American culture and the beauty of Northern New Mexico

Thrill to exciting women's gymnastics competition then relax and immerse yourself in majestic Native American art and culture in beautiful Northern New Mexico at the 2017 Dreamcatcher Gymnastics Invitational. Open to USA Gymnastics women's Level 2 through 10, this exciting weekend event is one your team won't soon forget.

- AAI Competition Equipment
- 16,500 sq-ft unique onsite competition venue
- Hoop Dancing Demonstrations
- Native American Art & Jewelry Exhibitors
- Professional action photos and custom athlete video available
- Individual entry fees: Xcel $55
Levels 2—5 $75; Levels 6—10 $90

Team Competition $50 Fee/Top 3 Scores; Modified Capitol Cup format - Awards following each session.

Entry Fee Deadline: January 10, 2017 (late registration $10 per gymnast, based on availability).

Meet Venue – Hilton Buffalo Thunder Resort

Located just 15 minutes north of Santa Fe, Buffalo Thunder is an extraordinary New Mexico Hilton destination resort. Enjoy spectacular views of the breathtaking, high-desert mountain scenery from your uniquely decorated room, or relax at the resort's indoor pool, multiple restaurants, full-service spa, golf course, casino, and night club.

Hilton Buffalo Thunder Resort; 20 Buffalo Thunder Trail, Santa Fe, New Mexico; 1-505-455-5555 www.buffalothunderresort.com

Meet Host & Mailing Address

High Flyers Gymnastics
Box 1473

Los Alamos, NM 87544

Meet Director: David Vosburgh, 505-500-5699/Sanction#58395

Email Entries/Credit Card Payments: director@lahighflyers.com

Check out our meet video at www.lahighflyers.com/Meet

We support Native American gymnasts and encourage Native American participation in this annual meet in preparation for the 2018 World Indigenous Winter Games.